

EXPERIENCE THAT MATTERS!

No fly-by-night operation. No garage full of chemicals. Anderson Silver Plating was founded in 1948 to fulfill the plating needs of musical instrument manufacturers in Elkhart, Indiana. Since then, we've grown to be the largest plater of band instruments in the world. We currently serve most of the band instrument manufacturers in the United States and plate thousands of instruments each year responsibly.

Our unwavering commitment to QUALITY AND SERVICE has earned us the appreciation and loyalty of hundreds of customers. Our extensive history and experience with the band instrument industry is available to our customers for assistance with their processes and problems. When looking for a plating and repair source for your band instruments, please try us. You will be glad you did.
